WOMAN RESCUED FROM DEATH IN NEAR TRAGEDY

Resort Owner Saves Victim From Drowning At Shelter Cove

In a near tragedy at Shelter Cove, last Sunday afternoon, George Lewis. who operates the resort at that place. rescued a woman, whose name was not ascertained, from drowning.

It is said by witnesses that the woman swam out beyond her depth and, carried by the tide, was several hundred feet off shore when her cries attracted the attention of those on the beach.

Lewis plunged into the surf and, after a battle with the waves, brought her, unconscious, to safety.

Meanwhile a son of Lewis had telephoned the Villa Hospital at Daly City with a request for a respirator. He was told to rush the woman to the hospital, and the "iron lung" recently installed was prepared. State traffic officers were asked to furnish an escort to speed the woman on her way.

However, when they reached Shelter Cove the woman had been revived by artificial respiration and had been taken home.

In making the rescue Lewis was considerably cut and bruised by encounters with jagged rocks.

ARE INDUCTED INTO FEDERATION OF SCHOLARSHIP

Ten New Members Are Initiated In Honor Society At High School

Members of the Jefferson Union High School honor society met recently for the purpose of initiating new members into Chapter 194 of the California Scholarship Federation.

At this meeting ten new members were formally initiated by the older members of the society. President Joe Nicoletti read the oath of the federation and each member repeated after him the promise to strive to maintain a high scholastic standing and to work for the betterment of the organization and Jefferson Union High School.

The new members were then called on to perform various individual stunts which proved very amusing to onlookers, but rather embarrassing to them.

This term the organization has reached a new high in membership for it now has twenty-three students enrolled, ten of whom are new members. The new members follow: Barbara Foreman, Marian Franzen, Rosemary Loney, Edward McIntosh, Ane Mjehovich, Maren Nelson, Edith Shiffman, Mary Smith, Evelyn Taylor and Mary Yonan.

Life membership in this society may be gained by a student being a member of the organization for three out of four years. This is an honor which few receive and this year only one student proved eligible for life membership. This student was Florine Capurro, who was presented her life membership pin at a recent assembly at the high school by the C. S. F. advisor, Miss Dorothy Staib.

Italian Picture At The State Theater

The New Italian opus "The Blind Girl of Sorrento," is appearing at the State Theater in South San Francisco next Wednesday. The new film—lengthy and melodramatic — concerns a lovely young woman who has been blind since childhood, her eyesight having left her in the sudden shock of seeing her mother murdered before her very eyes. She happened to be the only witness. Because of her affliction she was not able to name the murderer. The wrong man is accused and convicted. The guilty man lingers to make love to the blind daughter. The son of the innocently executed man — a young English doctor—comes to restore her sight to her. The story is very touching and dramatic.

Based on a popular Italian novel written in 1875, "La Cierca de Sorrento."

SHOOTING CAUSE IS STILL MYSTERY

A coroner's jury at San Bruno, on Tuesday of this week, rendered a verdict of murder and suicide in the deaths of Mrs. Mildred Cornell, 27, and Dr. F. Holmes Smith, prominent San Bruno physician.

Testimony at the hearing failed to reveal the motive that prompted Mrs. Cornell to shoot the physician in his office on February 19 and then end her own life.

However, evidence was adduced supporting the theory that her act was due to mental derangement due to rigorous efforts to reduce by taking excessive quantities of thyroid tablets.

MANY DEATHS IN WORST STORM IN SOUTH HISTORY

Large Number of Homes And Buildings In Business Districts In All Sections Inundated.

Virtually isolated from the rest of the world, southern California suffered, this week, from the effects of swirling floods which swept through the lowland areas of fifty or more communities from Ventura to San Juan Capistrano and from the Sierra Madre Mountains to the ocean.

More than 20 persons were dead.

All railway lines were paralyzed.

Airports were flooded. Bridges were torn away. Automobiles were unable to cross the raging torrents. Thousands of homes were demolished or inundated, and damages mounted into millions of dollars.

The streets of Hollywood, Beverly Hills, Santa Monica, Long Beach, Compton, Glendale, downtown Los Angeles and many other communities, apeared like Americanized Venices.

The intense adverse weather conditions disrupted communication and transportation between Los Angeles and San Francisco. After five days of the worst rains known to its suny clime, the lower state area was the scene of floods, landslides and washouts.

The crowded Long Beach bridge succombed and a landslide in Cajon Pass blocked the Santa Fe train near San Bernardino. The traffic of the Southern Pacific, too, was halted, as well as that of the Union Pacific.

Wilshire boulevard, Los Angeles, on which are located many of the city's highest class shops, most exclusive hotels and luxurious mansions, suffered along with less pretentious localities, with an ever mounting death toll.

Twelve thousand men were mobilized and set to work in aiding Red Cross officials, police and firemen in evacuating homes.

DALY CITY MAN DROWNS AT BEACH

Raymond Trimmer, 34, of 406 Niantic avenue, Daly City, was drowned, Saturday afternoon of last week, while fishing at Salada Beach.

While his 5 year old son watched from the top of a nearby cliff, Trimmer slipped off a rocky ledge below into the heavy surf.

The victim was heavily clothed and had no chance against the battering waves. His fall occurred a few minutes after he had climbed down the 400 foot cliff.

Coast Guardsmen, who were summoned from San Francisco, were compelled to use ropes to descend the cliff in attempting a rescue. The body has not yet been recovered.

AGRICULTURAL PAVILION TO GET AID OF COUNTY

Board Of Supervisors Will Support Movement To Complete Project

At its meeting, Tuesday of this week, the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors voted suport of the movement to complete the Visitacion livestock pavilion in time for the 1939 exposition by adopting a resolution requesting Governor Merriam to include in his call for a special session of the legislature the subject of a $500,000 state contribution to the cow palace.

In connnection with this matter the board also renewed its demand for an accounting of the $50,000 that this county appropriated for the project several years ago. Former Supervisor T. J. Hickey, to whom the request was directed, promised a report on how the money was spent.

Hickey told the board that to date, approximately $1,563,000 has been spent on the cow palace, and that administration has cost only $7500. He said the pavilion is a public edifice "that will last, you might say, for all time."

Lesson Sermon Of Christian Science

"As many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God." These words from Romans comprise the Golden Text to be used Sunday, March 6, in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon will be "Man." Included among the Scriptural selections will be: "For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit. For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace" (Rom. 8: 5, 6).

The following passages from the Christian Science Textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, will also be included: "We know no more of man as the true divine image and likeness than we know of God. . . . Even though you aver that the material senses are indispensable to man's existence or entity, you must change the human concept of life, and must at length know yourself spiritually and scientifically" (pp. 258, 359).

MEANING OF LIFE PTA MEMBERSHIP

Students Receiving Aid Have Proven Themselves To Be Worthy Of The Money Loaned Them

Life membership as one of the numerous projects of the California Congress of Parents and Teachers, Inc., is proving invaluable to the state as a means of promoting better citizenry. It aims to give scholarships to deserving students who lack money to continue their education in colleges or universities as well as to honor the individual upon whom this is bestowed for his service and loyalty to the ideals of the organization.

A life membership in the California Congress may be purchased by an individual or a unit for the sum of twenty-five dollars. Despit the fact that such a membership is honorary only and does not carry voting privileges, more than 1850 memberships, it is reported, have been sold through the state within the ten year period the department was established.

Upon application, a student found to be worthy, may borrow not more than $150 yearly with a maximum of $600 over a period of four years. This loan bears no interest but students on completion of their course and the commencement of employment are expected to repay the loan within three years.

The number of students in San Mateo County assisted by this scholarship fund was given as eleven. These students have shown unusual ability and in most cases are outstanding in their school activities.

Seventeenth District received a silver cup as a reward for purchasing more scholarships per unit than any other county in California.

Mrs. Julia V. Jordan, Crocker; Mrs. Ann Eason, General Pershing, and Mrs. Truman Bentley, Jefferson Union High School are life members from Daly City. Besides, there are twenty other honorary memberships from various parts of San Mateo County.

CONSERVING EVERY DROP

A northern farm hand went to work for a Texas rancher. There had been a long drought, and every man on the ranch was hoping for rain. One day it started to sprinkle, and the farm hand, to show his delight, began to dance in the rain.

"Hey, you," shouted the ranch owner, "come in out of the rain!"

"Oh, I don't mind it a bit," called back the farm hand.

"That isn't the point," insisted the rancher. "I want every drop of that water to fall on Texas."

It is said that there are now approximately two million laws—national, state and local—in effect in the United States. The Israelites under Moses got along with only ten, some of which are not observed to any great extent at the present time.

AMAZING MAN IS PORTRAYED BY MYSTERY PLAY

Depiction Unfolds One Of Most Startling Theories Of Crime

An amazing man, a physician, "The Amazing Dr. Clitterhouse,55 trod the boards of the Alcazar Theater, Monday night of this week, and for more than two hours held spellbound an audience that filled every seat in the house as he unfolded one of the most startling theories of crime and criminals in the annals of mystery plays on the American stage.

What the audience had seen and heard, at times, seemed preposterous until probably on second thought it occurred to one what scientists and scientific detectives are doing today and have done in making the busines of crime hard to get away with. Dr. Clitterhouse, a reputable doctor of medicine in London made a scientific study of crime and criminals—up to a certain point. That certain point is up to the audience to determine. At any rate his theories, as viewed by Barre Lyndon who authored the piece, are interesting, not preposterous, logical and the basis psychologically of all present day crime prevention and apprehension theories as practiced by the best schools.

Max West was excellent as Dr. Clitterhouse; Ruth Andersen, equally so as his office assistant. Among others who distinguished themselves in this unusually entertaining play were J. Raymond Northcutt, Robert Clarke, Alice Bartlett, Maurice Hugo, Mario Scarpa, Frank Bolger and Jack Vallee. "The Amazing Dr. Clitterhouse" is due for a brief run only. It will make way in two weeks for Elmer Rice's "Judgment Day," another New York success.

MUSIC SOOTHES SAVAGE BREASTS

Farmer Joe Bryan of Portland, Ind., has a radio in his big barn, and if he gets soft instrumental music, he said, the cows keep happy. Sheep and horses like the music, too, he has discovered.

Farmer Joe's neighbors smile when he tells how the radio helps him in his milking, but his wife is a loyal supporter of the idea, as she recently had to do the milking while her husband was exhibiting his sheep at a fair. She reports that the cows were restless and kept stamping their feet, until finally she thought to turn on the radio. Then they gave forth a low "moo" and the milking was finished in peace.

It has also been observed that the animals do not enjoy coloraturas. A woman's voice singing makes them nervous, but give them the smooth sweet strains of an orchestra and how they give milk.

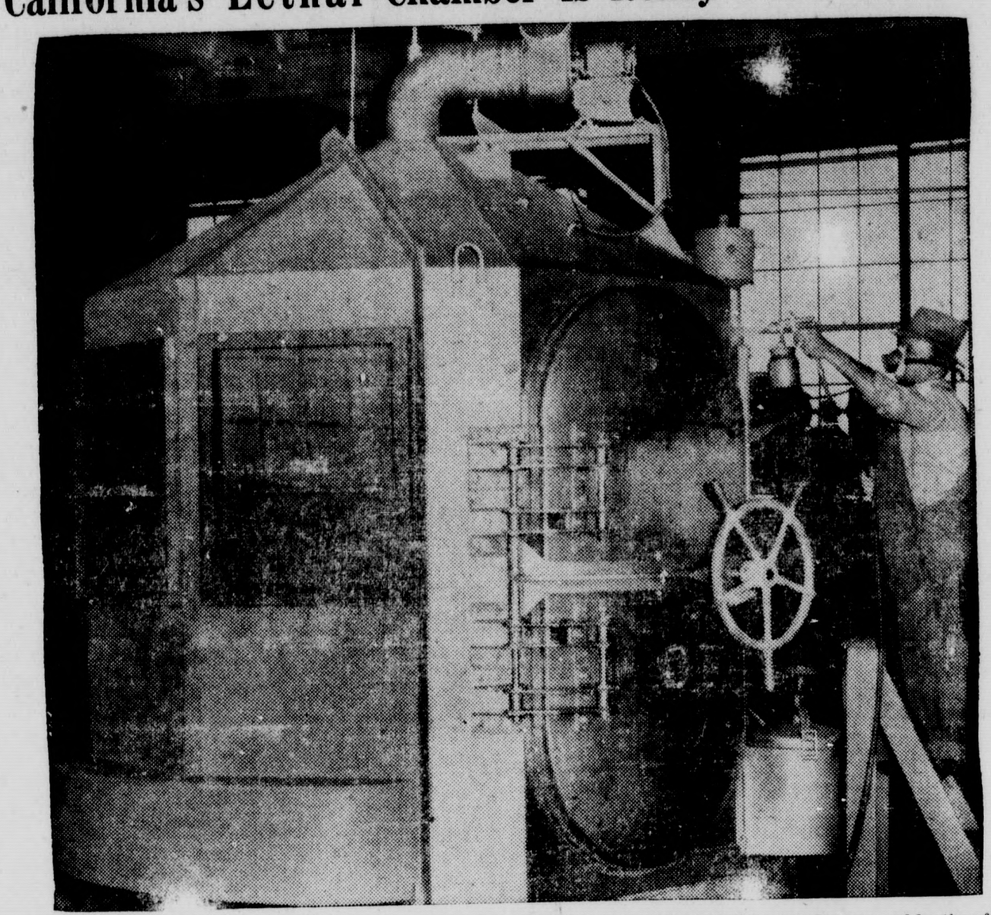
California's Lethal Chamber Is Ready For Placement



Ready to be installed, this ultra-modern death chamber is pictured as a wokrman adds the finishing touches before shipment from Denver, Colo., to San Quentin prison, in California. Requiring only fifteen seconds to execute a condemned prisoner, the new lethal chamber will replace the gallows. Two persons can be put to death at once while witnesses may peer through the windows on the sides. With electric blowers, acrid fumes of cyanide gas will be cleared from the chamber, allowing guards to remove a body within two minutes after the gas begins to fill the room. America's first lethal gas execution was performed in Carson City, Nev., state prison in 1921.

Alphone Gardar of Kansas City, Mo., was arrested on a vagrancy charge when he cut the electric power lines leading into a dance hall because he was refused admission to the dance.

Conley died at the Community Hospital, Saturday night of last week, after a long illness. He was the brother of Edward L. Conley, Mrs. Jessie Ford and Mrs. Susie Byrne of San Francisco and of Mrs. Clara Wise of Memphis, Tenn.

Interment was at Cypress Lawn Memorial Park.

A strange meeting of life and death occurred at Adairsville, Ga., a few days ago. Just as he finished delivering a baby boy, Dr. Sidney F. Hutcheson, 51, remarked "everything's over now," and dropped dead.

GUEST SPEAKER IN ADDRESS TO HIGH STUDENTS

Reviews Matters Pertaining To Founding And Growth Of "Old San Francisco"

Mr. Charles Dobie, famous author and short story writer, was the guest speaker at an assembly held last Thursday at Jefferson Union High School.

The subject of Mr. Dobie's address was "Old San Francisco." He stated that the founding of San Francisco was rather unique. In 1775, a man known as Anza opened a trail from Arizona into the San Diego country. There had been a few Missions established in California and getting supplies to them was very percarious.

Anza first blazed the trail to get supplies through to the Missions. After he had done this he was ordered by the Viceroy of Spain to proceed to San Francisco and establish a settlement there.

In October, 1775, 255 men, women, and children began a trek across the wilderness and later founded San Francisco. They started to build the Presidio first. The first Mission in San Francisco was finished in 1776, and they had a grand fiesta to celebrate its completion.

Mr. Dobie expressed the opinion that Anza and Moraga had not received the recognition they deserved for their part in the founding of San Francisco.

BRISBANE GENERALITIES

Well, we hear that March 10 is the birthday of the Bayshore-Brisbane post of the American Legion. Many happy returns of the day, boys.

* * *

Three car loads of our young boys are heading for the San Francisco Y. M. C. A. this a.m. for a day of fun and exercise, ending in a swim in the pool. The trip is sponsored by the Community Church. Have a good time boys, but don't get too wet.

* * *

We see that Mrs. Curtner is back up and around again.

* * *

A sure sign of spring is activity outside of the house. We have noticed so many people working in their yards that it would be impossible to name them all. Here are a few random shots: Mr. and Mrs. Warburton painting the window frames of their house and planting a new garden; Mr. Ferguson building a bird aviary, or could it have been a dog house? The Smiths of Klamath street recovering their roof. Wm. Jonas looking for prospective home buyers. Frank Kelly refusing to crank any more cars; in the past. Frank, I always thought it was the other end that was dangerous.

* * *

Mr. Amos Kinney is working on his garage and trying to help Mr. Deal look over the new truck, or should we have said overlook. Mrs. Kraus is wondering if the brown Willys truck will ever be allowed to cool off.

* * *

Ted Linde is wondering how he can get more water meters into operation.

* * *

Mrs. M. McKinney is beginning to take a deep breath for the final drive in the P. T. A. membership. We are wondering if this is a wrong time of the year for a membership drive, why the local chapter doesn't change to a better date?

* * *

A. G. Minnick has enlarged his garage and now says he will have to enlarge his car to fit the garage.

* * *

The way Mr. G. Haywood has been going around the streets lately, makes one wonder how come. Hardware business must be picking up, George.

* * *

By the way folks, you want a good paper in this town so why not tell the advertisers you saw their ad. After all's said and done, they make your newspaper. Let them know you appreciate it.

* * *

Francis McKinney was away over last week end, attending a Scout leaders meeting. We know he got some good ideas to bring home to the boys of the local troop. Those of you interested in scouting are reminded that they meet at the school house every Friday evening.

* * *

The Community Church has organized a Christian Endeavor Society, meeting Sunday evenings at 7 p.m. at 300 Klamath street. The officers for the next six months are: Harvey Smith, president; Al Foster, 1st vice president; Beth Nelson, 2nd vice president; Bud Lambkey, secretary; Cecil (Curly) Foster, Treasurer.

* * *

Mitch—May I give you a tip? Figure out some way to get all the local clocks set with yours so there will be no more of this ruuning to the corner when you are two or three blocks down the road.

* * *

We hear there was another session of dog poisoning again this past week. We have a capable county humane society and a 5-cent phone call is certainly a lot cheaper than the porterhouse steaks that have been used to wrap around the arsenic.

* * *

We noticed two of the Nelson boys, Harvey Smith, Rev. M. C. Donaldson, H. Clay Croft, Al Foster, Bud Lambkey, O. Ferguson, J. A. Richards and Bob Burns working on the Community Church lots last Saturday, with Ken Holliday lending moral support. They managed to finish the foundation of the first unit.

* * *

Tonight the Veterans are blossoming out again for their second dance at the Veterans Social Hall, 101 Visitacion. According to the report, Bill Estes is managing the social club and trying to get it on a self supporting basis.

* * *

Mrs. Jone's daughter Joan has been ill at 225 San Bruno. According to last report, she is well on the road to recovery.

* * *

Mrs. Placarpo is recovering from her broken shoulder.

* * *

Mr. Schwindelhoff's child has a light case of poison oak. That's what comes from admiring wild flowers too closely.

* * *

Mrs. Clymens' new baby has been named "George" and hasn't been feeling any too well for the past several days.

* * *

Dr. Guardino is taking this week end off and going on a little trip to visit his sister in law. He will be back on the job Monday a.m.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ross and son spent last week end on a farm. It seems as they all had a good time.

* * *

The women of the Brisbane Community Church have named their society, "The Willing Workers Missionary Society." At their meeting, last Tuesday evening, which was held at Mrs. Al Foster's home, they voted in five new members—Mrs. McKean, Mrs. Bragg, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Bhend, Mrs. Goerges. The next meeting, which will be sewing, will be held at Mrs. Bhend's home on Sierra Point road, Thursday at 10 a.m.

TERM PLAY IS JAYSEE ACTIVITY

San Mateo Junior College drama students will present "Stage Door," by Edna Ferber and George S. Kauffman, as the term play production May 6 and 7. The students selected the play recently and are now starting tryouts and rehearsals under Miss Ada Beveridge, drama instructor.

Al Newlove, Santa Cruz student, has been elected vice president of the student body for this term. Willie Silva, Sequoia High student, will serve as men's club president.

Debating is starting an active semester at the college. A number of the students interested in that activity went to a student congress at the University of California to discuss all phases of several important topics of the day.

The Northern California Junior College Association will hold its meeting at Sacramento, April 30. Many San Mateo Jaysee instructors will attend.

M. B. Gray, 80, of New Lebanon, Ill., recently inserted this ad in a rural Illinois newspaper: "For Sale—the village of New Lebanon, consisting of four houses and a store with four living rooms. Price $8000."

Boy, 12, Kidnaped, Held For Ransom

Peter Levine, 12, son of a New York lawyer, who is held by kidnapers for $60,000 ransom. The boy vanished mysteriously several days before his father made a frantic public appeal begging the abductors to contact him. Police and government agents are standing aside while negotiations are carried on, but a ransom note reportedly found under a rock by the boy's mother is the only clue to his whereabouts. An investigator said the ransom note had been written on a cheap dial typewriter similar to those sold as toys for children.

BRISBANE P T A

By B. Darling

All members of the Brisbane P. T. A. are urged to take part in the membership drive by renewing their own memberships and securing new ones. Dues may be paid to Mrs. Nita Lummis, membership chairman, or to Mrs. Gertha McKinney during the next week.

The nominating committee of the unit, including Mrs. Ethel Jonas, Mrs. Eleanor Morley, Mrs. Josephine Norwicke, Miss Natalie Lippman and Miss Juanita Mahaffi, is preparing its report for the coming election.

"Lucky 6," that amusing and profitable game, will again be part of the evening entertainment at the next P. T. A. whist to be held at the school on Tuesday, March 8. An order for fourteen quarts of milk and a gentleman's leather billfold and key case are among the many prizes to be given.

ALWAYS A FARMER

"One does not cease to be a farmer because drought or wind or pest may have rendered the farm barren."—Benjamin N. Cardozo.

PROTEST PAROLE FOR MURDERER

The application of William Haney for parole from his life term in Folson has been unfavorable recommended by the office of the San Mateo County district attorney.

District Attorney Gilbert D. Farrell advised the State Board of Prison Terms that the crime for which he was sentenced appeared to be such a cold blooded one that no mercy is warranted.

Haney and a companion, one Red Christiansen, killed a San Francisco taxi cab driver named Albert Redington Jr. at Colma and made away with his automobile.

A living church is the hope of the world. A Christian Church is an organized body of Christ's followers united together for Christian service and worship. The Church of Christ is the whole body of Christ's true followers. It includes true Christians wherever found and in all denominations. These different denominations vary somewhat as to beliefs, methods of government and form of worship, but most of them are in substantial accord on all essential points.

Churches exist to lead people to become Christians and to help them to live a Christ like life. Attend your church.

If you haven't a church home, this church welcomes you to join in worship, in fellowship and in service.

Recovers From Hurts Received In Fight At Local Cafe Last Week

Gordon Lummus, 38, of Brisbane is recovering from the results of a fight last week at a local cafe. Several witnesses say that Charles Cossetti, the bartender, asked for payment and was told by Lummus to step outside and he would be paid.

Several minutes later as Cossetti passed from the bar to the tables, to serve other customers, Lummus struck at Cossetti, which blow was returned. Lummis was knocked down four times and severely injured, but able to walk home. His wife took him to a South San Francisco hospital where a broken shoulder, eye and head injuries were attended to.
